Discipline Committee

Goals and success are connected through discipline. Therefore, education should instill in students the moral and ethical principles of welfare and make every effort to infuse learning with fundamental human values.

Vision

To instill discipline in students by fostering a positive, supportive environment at our college.

Mission

- To have a positive outlook when attempting to instill discipline in students.
- To establish a committee and regulations to uphold discipline on college property.

AIMS

1. The Disciplinary Committee is essential to keeping the college disciplined. It takes notice of any grievances or accusations made against college students.

2. The Disciplinary Committee is tasked with raising awareness of and working to stop any negative situations from happening on the college campus.

3. The Disciplinary Committee is responsible for ensuring adherence to the guidelines established by the UGC Regulations for reducing the threat of indiscipline behaviour on campus.

4. The Disciplinary Committee is responsible for monitoring and supervising the responsibilities and actions regarding the avoidance of student indiscipline.

5. The Disciplinary Committee will control student behaviour by creating a well-thought-out apparatus to address threats of indiscipline and disorder.

6. If the students are found responsible for acts that constitute a misdemeanor on campus, the Disciplinary Committee may impose sanctions on them.

Objectives

The committee mainly focuses on:

- Addressing topics that concern students and creating a safe atmosphere for students at the college.
- Educating the kids about the regulations, guidelines, and requirements they must adhere to.
- Enforcing disciplinary measures against any misbehavior.

Responsibilities of Discipline Committee

- To maintain a calm and serene learning environment on campus.
- To prevent on-campus fights among students.
- To guarantee that all students enter the school while wearing ID cards.
- To forbid pupils from using cell phones on campus.
- To keep an eye on how the college's students are moving and stop them from loitering in the hallway during class times.
- To stop students from leaving the college without the department head's prior approval.
- Stringent prohibitions against the use of drugs, alcohol, and tobacco on college campuses.
